Vote To Incorporate

At a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce held last Monday night in the courthouse the body voted to incorporate the town by adopting the report of the committee raised for the purpose of advising the chamber on the matter. After adopting a resolution to allow all qualified voters in the proposed zone to vote for or against incorporation, the meeting was adjourned and the meeting resolved itself into a mass-meeting of citizens, and many enthusiastic speeches were made in favor of incorporation, and a resolution was adopted extending the proposed zone to take in a very much larger territory, on which there was much discussion, and was finally adopted. This so extends the zone as to take in much unimproved property and if adhered to will undoubtly defeat incorporation in our opinion.

On the 16th of March at night in the school auditorium a mass-meeting will be held to further consider the matter at which time a tentative charter will be presented for consideration. Out of town speakers are expected to be present to address the meeting. The tax rate was agreed to as not to exceed 50c on the $100 valuation of the property within the proposed zone, and according to the report of the committee would raise about $4,000 per annum.

It would be a good idea for all citizens of the town both ladies and gentlemen to attend this meeting.

School Supt.

Two weeks ago we endorsed the application of Prof. L. Crawley for Supt. of schools of this county. At that moment Prof. Crawley assured us that he was in the fight to a finish and had no idea of withdrawing. Before that time he had been opportuned by Delegate Horsely to withdraw alleging defeat awaited him.

The Professor's friends were utterly surprised and astounded when he informed them just three days ago that he had retired from the fight. As the appointments are to be made today it left the advocates of a change in the superintendent's office high and dry without an applicant.

When called on today by the editor for a statement for publication about the matter he submits the following:

"On January 14th, I filed, upon request of a number of my friends, application for position of Division Superintendent of schools for Appomattox county before the board of Supervisors and School Board of this county upon certain conditions. I was informed that same had been met, hence immediately filed my application before the State Board upon the same terms. About five weeks later, I found that a misunderstanding had arisen over certain conditions, and that the matter of terms were uncertain. Thus after considering the matter carefully, I decided it would be best to withdraw unless both local boards could agree on terms and suggested that both agree on a candidate, and that I did not care for the position except on the terms and conditions set forth in my application."

Yesterday Senator Ferguson, Delegate Horsely, Treasurer Burke and the Superintendent left for Richmond, all supporters of the incumbent superintendent. They will probably have little, if any, trouble in getting this man reappointed for four more years, since the appointing Board will have no other applicant before it.

The Board of Supervisors, elected by the people, had endorsed Prof. Crawley, the School Board appointed officers, endorsed the incumbent.

Few public officers should hold office by appointment rather than by election of the people.

We feel confident that Prof. Crawley would have been appointed had he fought to a finish, and in our opinion that is the only kind of a man who deserves victory.

Darlington Heights

Farmers are taking advantage of the nice weather and much work is being done—burning plant beds, plowing etc. The most of the tobacco has been sold with satisfactory prices. Yes we are Co-ops, the most of us and thats what we expect to stay.

Mrs. E. B. Towler, who has been ill for several months continues about the same.

Mrs. Sam Thackston is recovering from a severe attack of the flu.

The home of J. L. Edwards was destroyed by fire on Feb. 9th. The family was not at home and the neighbors did'nt find it out in time to save anything. All the buildings adjoining the yard were destroyed.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Baker visited his sister here on last Sunday.

Mrs. Chapman Harvey has returned to her home near Hosmer after visiting her uncles, J. F. and W. A. Baker. Also her aunt, Mrs. Sam Thackston.

Our beloved pastor of Bethlehem and Douglas churches will leave for a sanitorium near Roanoke on the 5th. Mr. Smith has been in failing health for some months. We trust he may soon be restored to his usual health and serength and return to his family here.

Hansford Putney and bride, nee Miss Susie Johnson, who were married on February 8th, are now occupying their nice new home near here. We extend to them our best wishes for a long and happy life.

Mrs. George Oliver, who has been sick, is out again.

Mr. Dillard Baker and bride were guests recently of his aunt, Mrs. Sam Thackston.

Miss Marietta Bell was a visitor of friends at Bethelehem last Saturday.

We are sorry to report that Dr. W. R. Martin is in a hospital in Richmond for treatment. His wife and daughter are with him.

Miss Josephene Baker is now in training in a hospital in Richmond.

Watson Bagby, who had the misfortune to break his arm, is improving.

Miss Bessie Singleton recently had as her guests Miss Thelma Harriss, of Powhatan. Also Misses Lillian Shorter, Mary Payne, Lucy Adams and Anna Foster, all of this place, in honor of Miss Harris last weekend.

GETTING UP NIGHTS

Tells you there is danger ahead. A healthy man does not get up night after night. J. H. Dixon, W. Graham, Va. says: "I had to get up often, or eight times at night for forty years. I thought it was my age. I was using Lithia and Buchu. A friend told me to get Linkola Buchu and Lithia tablets. I did so. Soon Sales on the bowels, threw off aching irritation, driving out the poisonous matter and restoring the organs to their natural action. Now I get up only once a night." The bladder at night (Linkola Buchu Lithia Formula) is not a cheap medicine. The tablets cost $1.00 per box. Sold by leading druggists. Keller Laboratory, Rainbow Building, Roanoke, Va.

Fletcher Burge

W. F. Burge died at his home near Oakville Saturday, January 17th, at 7 o'clock p. m. He was 75 years, 6 months and 17 days old. Deceased was born July 26th, 1849.

The funeral services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. J. L. Lavender, and laid to rest by his mother in the family burying ground on Monday afternoon, where a host of friends and relatives gathered to pay the last tribute of respect. "Rock of Ages" and "Jesus Lover of My Soul" were sung at the house and "Home of the Soul" at the grave. Many beautiful designs covered his last resting place.

The pallbearers were his grand sons. Flowers were borne by his grand daughters.

Besides his beloved wife, who was Miss Emma Coleman, he is survived by four children: Mrs. E. W. Moore, Mrs. C. A. Moore, Mrs. G. D. Harris and James W. Burge.

He spent his life in Appomattox. Was a constant member of Mt. Comfort church of which he once served as steward. Always thought about his church and went as long as he could go to it. He was a devoted and faithful husband, loving father and a kind neighbor. He will be sadly missed. He leaves to those who knew him best a sweet Christian influence. During his long illness he received the tender and affectionate attention and sympathy from his people and friends. All was done that loving hands could do, but God knew best. He was ready when the Lord called. He suffered for a long time, but bore it with patience. His painful body is silent.

Loving voice heard no more
For our dear father is in Heaven
His suffering on earth is over
Now he is a shining jewel
Safe in the Father's home
And we hope to meet him
Some day at God's bright throne.
